Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Opening Prayer

Almighty Father,
strong is your justice and great is your mercy.
Protect us in the burdens and challenges of life,
Shield our minds from the distortion of pride and enfold our desire with the beauty of truth.

Help us to become more aware of your loving design so that we may more willingly give our lives in service to all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

℟. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Reading 1 (2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14)

A reading from the second Book of Maccabees

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, and force them to eat pork in violation of God's law.

One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said:

"What do you expect to achieve by questioning us?

We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors."

At the point of death he said:

"You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying."

After him the third suffered their cruel sport.

He put out his tongue at once when told to do so,

and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words:

"It was from Heaven that I received these;

for the sake of his laws I disdain them;

from him I hope to receive them again."

Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing.

After he had died,

they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way.

When he was near death, he said,

"It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him;

but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

✠. This is the Word of the Lord.

℟. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15)

R. Lord, when your glo - ry ap - pears, my joy will be full.

Hear, O LORD, a just suit;
attend to my outcry;
hearken to my prayer from lips without deceit.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.
I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God;
incline your ear to me; hear my word.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Keep me as the apple of your eye,
hide me in the shadow of your wings.
But I in justice shall behold your face;
on waking I shall be content in your presence.

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Reading 2 (2 Thes 2:16-3:5)

A reading from the second letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians.

Brothers and sisters:
May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified,
as it did among you,
and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people,
for not all have faith.
But the Lord is faithful;
he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.

Now there were seven brothers;
 the first married a woman but died childless.
 Then the second and the third married her,
 and likewise all the seven died childless.
 Finally the woman also died.
 Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be?
 For all seven had been married to her."
 Jesus said to them,
 "The children of this age marry and remarry;
 but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.
 They can no longer die,
 for they are like angels;
 and they are the children of God
 because they are the ones who will rise.
 That the dead will rise
 even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,'
 the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;
 and he is not God of the dead, but of the living,
 for to him all are alive."

℣. This is the Gospel of the Lord.

℞. Praise to you, Lord, Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

All bow at these two lines

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered, died, and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen

General Intercessions

The celebrant invites the congregation to pray and offers several prayer intentions. Each concludes, "We pray to the Lord."

R̄. Lord, hear our prayer.

The celebrant concludes the intercessions with a final short prayer ending with "... through Christ, our Lord."

R̄. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offering of the Gifts

☩. Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the bread of life.

℟. Blessed be God for ever.

☩. Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this wine to offer, fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become our spiritual drink.

℟. Blessed be God for ever.

Prayer over the Gifts

☩. Pray, my brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

℟. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and glory of his name,
for our good, and the good of all his Church.

God of mercy,
in this eucharist we proclaim the death of the Lord.
Accept the gifts we present and help us follow him with love, for he is Lord for ever and ever.

℟. Amen.

Preface and Sanctus (Sundays in Ordinary Time VIII)

The Church united in the mystery of the Trinity

The celebrant recites or sings the Preface:

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God,
we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks.

When your children sinned
and wandered far from your friendship, you reunited them with yourself
through the blood of your Son and the power of the Holy Spirit.

You gather them into your Church, to be one as you, Father, are one with your Son and the Holy Spirit.
You call them to be your people,
to praise your wisdom in all your works.
You make them the body of Christ and the dwelling-place of the Holy Spirit.

In our joy we sing to your glory
with all the choirs of angels:

(Sanctus XVIII Deus Genitor Alme)

Sanctus, * Sanctus, Sanctus Dómi-nus De-us

Eucharistic Prayer (IV)

The celebrant prays the Eucharistic Prayer. After the consecration, the celebrant sings:

Ÿ. Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is ris-en, Christ will come a - gain.

The celebrant concludes the Eucharistic Prayer.

Through him, with him and in him in the unity of the Holy Spirit
all glory and honor are yours, Almighty Father Forever and ever.

A - men, A - men, A - men.
